Imprints Cares Selected Lowe's Heroes Project

Winston-Salem, NC, May 27, 2016. Imprints Cares, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to unlocking the full potential of children and their families in school and in life, has been selected for Lowe's Heroes Project to renovate our Downtown on Broad enrichment space. The project starts June 2, 2016!

Courtney Pack, Lowes Home Improvement store #2653 off of Peters Creek Parkway in Winston-Salem, NC, shared, "This is a wonderful project to support children's learning in our community." Ken Moser (store #1141, Kernersville, NC) came on board and also offered summer camp field trip tours saying, "We welcome you all here and we hope we can make it meaningful and fun."

"Lowe's Home Improvement embraces teamwork as a core value and a key ingredient in maintaining an engaged work force. We believe that by working together we can build something better — for our company, our customers and our communities. Transforming lives one community at a time — that's been the mission of Lowe's Heroes since the volunteer program began in our stores more than 10 years ago. The program encourages employees in a location to team together, adopt a volunteer project with a local nonprofit organization or K-12 public school and make a difference."

Imprints Cares long-time supporter, Augsburg Lutheran Church, Hind Fund, awarded $10,000 in support of this project as part of their outreach in our community for vulnerable children and their families.

Imprints Cares board, staff, and volunteers are thankful to organizations like Lowe's Home Improvement and Augsburg Lutheran Church. Together, we can close the gap before it begins ...

About Imprints Cares

Imprints Cares is a nonprofit organization with a vision to unlock the full potential of children and their families for success in school and in life. Through its mission to enrich children's development while supporting their families on the journey of parenthood, Imprints Cares partners with families to provide the tools they need to raise their children to be safe, healthy and ready to learn. Imprints Cares' philosophy is to nurture children and support parents so they have the ability to change our community for the better. In doing so, these families build thriving generations who are doing their best.
